

There are times when a filter needs to be small yet keep a high percentage of open area to stay efficient. One of the ways of achieving this is by using pleated filters.

Croft can do the maths and work out what is needed to obtain a high level of open area so your filter can be made to your size requirements and are experienced in manufacturing many different types of pleated filters.

PLEATED FILTERS